

May 5th–8th, 2024
Bandon Dunes Golf Resort

Bandon Dunes is not your average golf resort, and Fight for Fish is not your average charity golf tournament. Played on critically acclaimed courses designed in the true spirit of Scotland's ancient links, Fight for Fish provides a collegial setting with world-class golf and spectacular people – all to support The Freshwater Trust's freshwater conservation work. The tournament is hosted by Bandon Dunes owner Mike Keiser and Columbia Sportswear CEO Tim Boyle.

- $32K per foursome, $8K per player.
- The event is limited to 20 foursomes.
- $20K per foursome is tax deductible.
- Each participant has the option of five rounds of golf with caddies (including gratuity), three nights lodging and all food and beverages.
- The winning foursome and top golfer achieve golf immortality by placing ceremonial flies into the fly wallet of the fishing creel that serves as the tournament trophy displayed at Bandon Dunes.

Entry Fee

Your Fight for Fish entry fee covers lodging, golf, caddy fees, gratuities and organized meals. Other incidentals (pro shop purchases, Bunker Bar, room service, etc.) will be your responsibility.

Transportation

Pre-arranged shuttle service is available for transportation to and from the airport. There is a resort shuttle service available at regular intervals between your accommodations, the Main Lodge and the various courses.

Accommodations

Group members are staying as foursomes in the Grove Cottages, Lodge Suites and Round Lake rooms. Check-in begins at 4:00 pm on Sunday. Checkout is Wednesday by 11:00 am.

Golf

An optional practice round is available for Sunday, May 5th. There will be two scored rounds of golf, the first on Monday, May 6th on Pacific Dunes and the second on Tuesday, May 7th on Sheep Ranch.

TFT is proud to partner with YETI and Bandon Dunes to reduce single-use plastic bottles throughout the resort.
